

WELCOME TO YOUR NEXT GREAT ADVENTURE IN NOVA SCOTIA

--

From the unbelievably fresh cuisine to spectacular views and distinct Maritime culture—everything along our 13,000+ km (over 8,000 miles) of coastline has been uniquely shaped by the sea. Read on to discover just a few of the incredible experiences available in Nova Scotia, Canada.

novascotia.com/cruise

► Halifax

Nova Scotia is best known for its Halifax and Sydney ports, but there are plenty of other charming ports dotting our coastline. Let's get acquainted with all they have to offer:

BADDECK:

Located in the heart of Cape Breton Island, nestled on the shore of Bras d'Or Lake, lies a resort town full of serene, tranquil beauty:

- Explore the Alexander Graham Bell National Historic Site to learn about Baddeck's most famous resident.
- Scottish roots and Gaelic history come alive at Highland Village Museum.
- Embark on a journey to learn all about the Mi'kmaq, Nova Scotia's Indigenous people, at Eskasoni Cultural Journeys.

CHÉTICAMP:

Nestled along the famous Cabot Trail, the town of Chéticamp has kept their unique Acadian culture alive for over 200 years through music, food, craft, and tradition:

- Explore Cape Breton Highlands National Park to discover pristine nature and majestic views.
- Visit Les Trois Pignons: Museum of the Hooked Rug or the Centre de la Mi-Carême and delve into Acadian culture and crafts.

Baddeck ◀

▶ Yarmouth

Sydney ◀

HALIFAX:

Welcome to Nova Scotia's city by the sea. Halifax is the historical and cultural capital of Atlantic Canada, offering a breadth of unique attractions, experiences, and adventures:

- Enjoy a coastal drive to Peggy's Cove, where you'll see one of the world's most famous lighthouses.
- Watch history come alive at the Halifax Citadel and Georges Island National Historic Sites.
- Stroll the city's 4 km (2.4 mile) boardwalk, where you can dine, shop, set out on a harbour tour, and so much more.

LOUISBOURG:

The welcoming town of Louisbourg has a rich living history, spectacular walking trails, working fishing wharves, and charm to spare:

- Tour the Fortress of Louisbourg National Historic Site, the largest historical reconstruction in North America.
- Get drawn in by the iconic Louisbourg Lighthouse.

LUNENBURG:

Adored by all who visit, Old Town Lunenburg is bursting with colour and charm. Its distinct architecture and seafaring history have made it a must-visit UNESCO World Heritage Site:

- Discover the charm of Lunenburg on a guided tour, where history and architecture come to life around every corner.
- Get hands-on at the Fisheries Museum of the Atlantic and learn all about the working life of fishers.
- Explore the nearby quaint town of Mahone Bay with its Three Churches and learn about the mystery of Oak Island.

PICTOU:

Immerse yourself in the rich Scottish heritage of Pictou, the birthplace of "New Scotland." Explore the region's fascinating history and experience vibrant local traditions:

- Step back in time and walk in the footsteps of the brave Scottish settlers at Hector Heritage Quay and Ship Hector.
- Explore engaging exhibits, interactive displays, and hands-on activities at Atlantic Canada's largest museum, the Museum of Industry.

SHELburnE:

Loyalist-era buildings, coastal views, and picturesque natural beauty make Shelburne a uniquely charming harbour town:

- Visit the Black Loyalist Heritage Centre to learn the story of the world's largest free African population outside of Africa in the late 18th century.
- Explore Shelburne's Museums by the Sea, then enjoy a stroll along historic Dock Street.

SYDNEY:

Sydney is the gateway to Cape Breton Island—repeatedly ranked the #1 island in North America by Condé Nast—and boasts the largest urban area on the island:

- Head underground with former mineworker guides at the Cape Breton Miners Museum.
- Take a day trip to discover the stunning views and scenery that make the Cabot Trail world famous.
- Be sure to make time to visit and get a selfie with the world's largest fiddle!

YARMOUTH:

Yarmouth is a hidden gem found off the beaten path, where English and Acadian cultures mingle and coastal charm is on full display:

- Climb a lighthouse: you'll ascend 77 spiral steps to the top of the tower and take in spectacular views with Cape Forchu Lighthouse's Climb the Light experience.
- Travel through the Tusket Islands, haul a lobster trap, and savour seafood chowder on a modern fishing boat excursion.

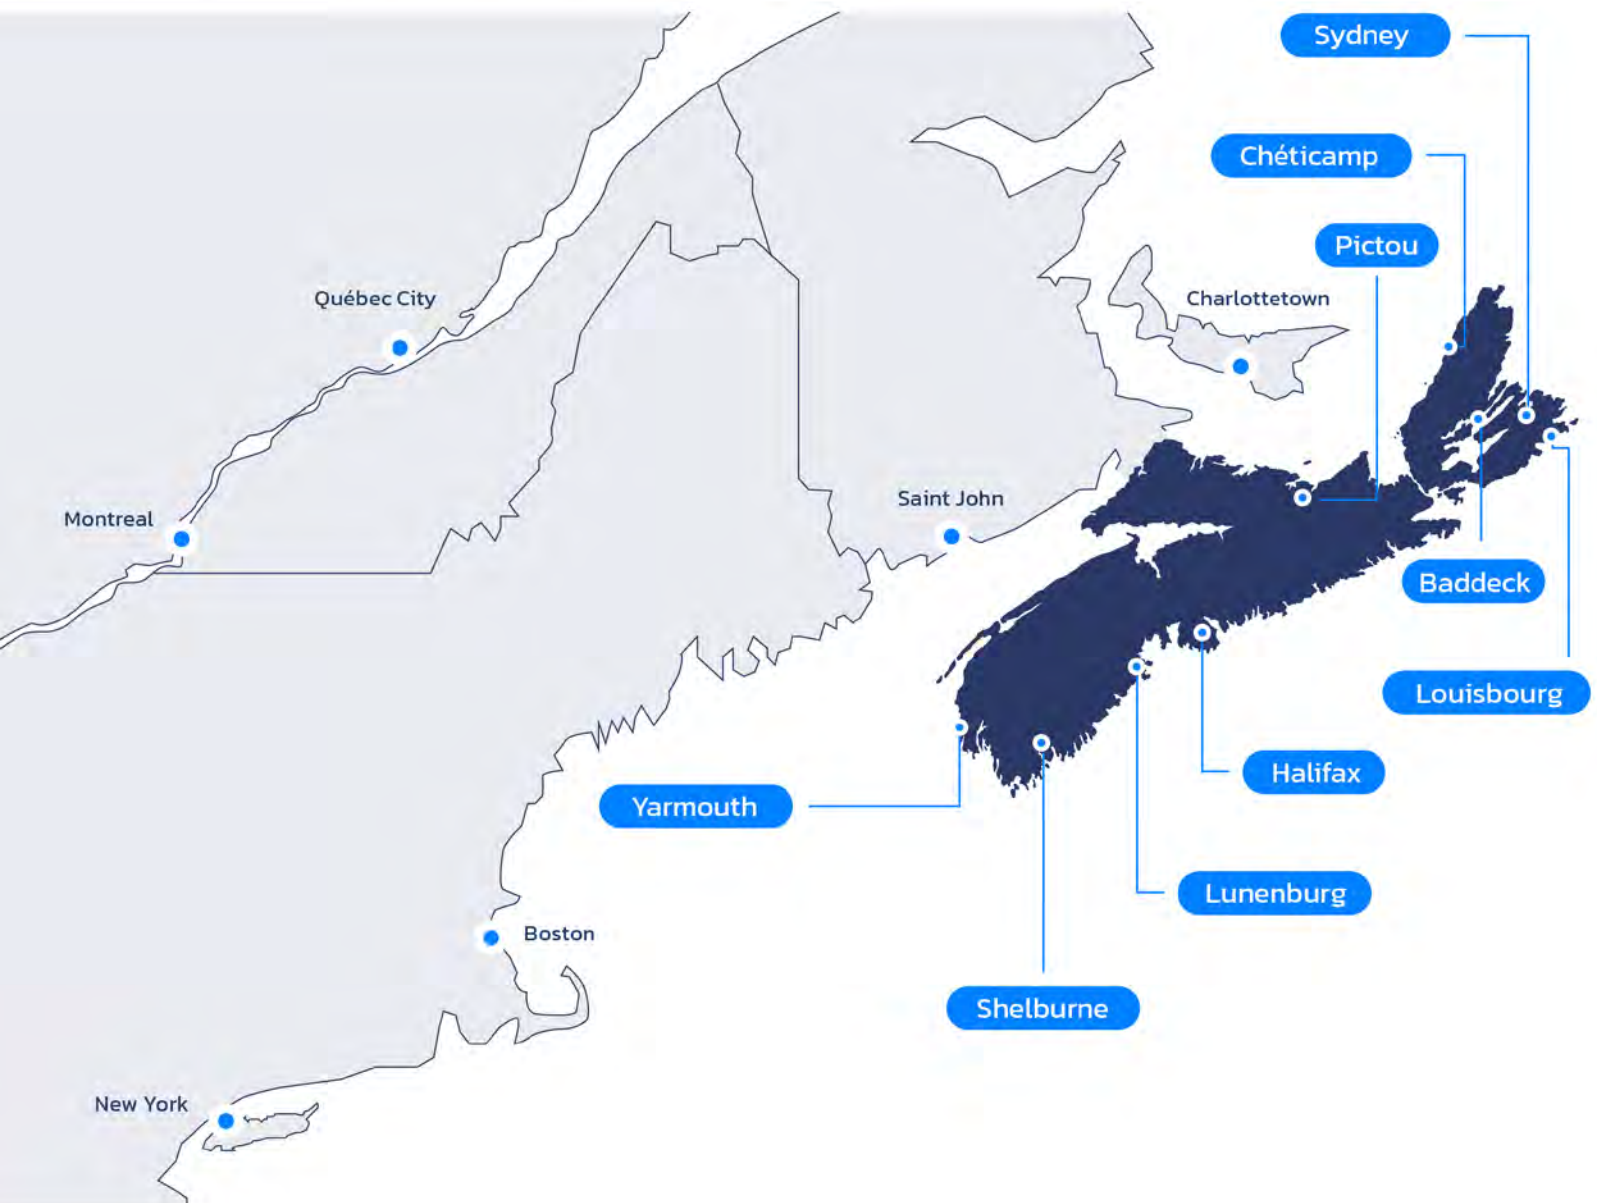

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION.

Discover a unique blend of rich maritime heritage and vibrant local culture at one of Nova Scotia's nine cruise ports. Immerse yourself in carefully curated excursions, historic tours, and breathtaking coastal vistas that capture the authentic spirit of Nova Scotia.

Located within close proximity to Quebec, New York, and Boston, the region offers a convenient and compelling destination for cruise itineraries.

Peggy's Cove ◀

▶ Chéticamp

NOVA  SCOTIA
CANADA

Want more information?
Scan the QR code!

